

AUDAX CREDIT BDC INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. Purpose

The nominating and corporate governance committee (the “Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee”) of Audax Credit BDC Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), is appointed by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board of Directors”) pursuant to authority delegated to it by the Board of Directors to (i) select, research and nominate qualified nominees to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Company at the annual meeting of shareholders; (ii) identify, select or recommend qualified nominees to fill any vacancies on the Board of Directors or a committee thereof (consistent with criteria approved by the Board of Directors); (iii) develop and recommend to the Board of Directors a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company; (iv) oversee the evaluation of the Board of Directors and management; and (v) undertake such other duties and responsibilities as may from time to time be delegated by the Board of Directors to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

I. Committee Membership

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be comprised of the number of Independent Directors as the Board of Directors shall determine from time to time, such number not to be less than two. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be comprised solely of Independent Directors. For purposes of this charter of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (this “Charter”), “Independent Directors” are members of the Board of Directors who (i) are not “interested persons” (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”)) of the Company and (ii) meet any other applicable requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and any other applicable laws, rules and regulations with respect to independence, as determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall designate the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board of Directors shall have the power at any time to change the membership of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, to fill all vacancies and to designate alternate members to replace any absent or disqualified members, so long as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall at all times have at least two members and be composed solely of Independent Directors. If a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee ceases to be an Independent Director for reasons outside the reasonable control of such member, the member may remain on the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee until the earlier of the next annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure of such member to be an Independent Director. The members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall select its Chairman. The designated Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be David G. Moyer.

II. Authority

In discharging its responsibilities, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall have authority to retain, at the Company’s expense, outside counsel or other consultants, including any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, in the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's sole discretion. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall also have sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms of such consultants and to terminate such consultants. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall have the authority to create subcommittees with such powers as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall from time to time confer.

III. Responsibilities

The following are the general responsibilities of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and are set forth only for its guidance. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may assume such other responsibilities as it deems necessary or appropriate in carrying out its purpose. Nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted as diminishing or derogating from the responsibilities of the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to authority granted to it by the Board of Directors, the responsibilities of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are as follows:

1. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall consider, recruit and appoint candidates to fill positions on the Board of Directors (or a committee thereof), including vacancies resulting from the removal, resignation or retirement of any member of the Board of Directors (or a committee thereof), an increase in the size of the Board of Directors (or a committee thereof) or otherwise. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall (i) identify and select candidates who qualify as Independent Directors for election to the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of shareholders, (ii) recommend for selection by the full Board of Directors candidates who are "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act) for election to the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of shareholders, (iii) appoint a director to fill any vacancy existing on the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, as to which an Independent Director is required to serve and (iv) recommend for appointment by the full Board of Directors a candidate who is an "interested person" (as defined in the 1940 Act) to fill any vacancy existing on the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, as to which an interested person is permitted to serve. In considering potential candidates, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall discuss the specific experience, qualifications, attributes and skills that may lead it to the conclusion that such candidate should serve as a director or a committee member for the Company, in light of the Company's then-existing business and structure. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall seek to enhance the perspectives and experiences of the Board of Directors through diversity in gender, ethnic background, geographic origin and professional experience.
2. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall establish the criteria for evaluating (subject to Board of Directors approval of those qualifications) and evaluate the qualifications of individuals being considered for election or appointment as members of the Board of Directors (or a committee thereof), which criteria shall include, at a minimum, the following:

- (a) to the extent required, compliance with the independence and other applicable requirements of the federal securities laws and any other applicable laws, rules or regulations and the criteria, policies and principles set forth in this Charter; and
- (b) the ability to contribute to the effective management of the Company, taking into account the needs of the Company and such factors as the individual's experience, perspective, personal and professional integrity, character, skills, and knowledge of the industry in which the Company operates, and ability to critically review, evaluate, question and discuss information provided to them, and to interact effectively with the Company's management, service providers and counsel, in order to exercise effective business judgment in the performance of their duties.

In addition, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may consider, with respect to an individual being considered for election or appointment a member of the Board of Directors, whether the individual's professional experience, education, skills and other individual qualities and attributes, including gender, race or national origin, would provide beneficial diversity of skills, experience or perspective to the Board of Directors' membership and collective attributes. Such considerations will vary based on the Board of Directors' existing membership and other factors, such as the strength of the individual's overall qualifications relative to diversity considerations.

3. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend the director and committee member nominees for approval by the Board of Directors and, if applicable, election by the shareholders of the Company.
4. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall consider shareholder recommendations for possible nominees for election as members of the Board of Directors.
5. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall annually evaluate the qualifications and diversity of current members of the Board of Directors (each, a "Director" and collectively, the "Directors") who are available for reelection in light of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2) above and recommend whether each Director should be renominated.
6. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall, upon a significant change in a member of the Board of Directors' personal circumstances (including a change in principal occupation) or in the event a significant ongoing time commitment arises that may be inconsistent with such Director's service on the Board of Directors, review, as appropriate, the continued membership of such Director.

7. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall report to the Board of Directors its conclusions with respect to the matters that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has considered.
8. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall establish and recommend to the Board of Directors guidelines for the removal of members of the Board of Directors.
9. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review the desirability of term limits for members of the Board of Directors and recommend to the Board of Directors policies in this regard from time to time.
10. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall evaluate the leadership structure of the Board of Directors, including the responsibilities of the Board of Directors with respect to the Company's management and whether the Chairman of the Board of Directors is an "interested person" of the Company, and shall evaluate whether such leadership structure is appropriate for the Company in light of the Company's then-existing business and structure. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors is an "interested person" of the Company, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall consider whether appointment of a lead independent director is appropriate and, if such lead independent director is appointed, establish the role of such director in the leadership of the Company.
11. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall oversee the evaluation of the Board of Directors and executive officers of the Company. In discharging this responsibility, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall solicit comments from all members of the Board of Directors and report annually to the Board of Directors on the results of such evaluation.
12. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review periodically with the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company the succession plans relating to positions held by executive officers of the Company and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the process for selection, and the selection, of individuals to occupy these positions.
13. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and submit any proposed modifications to the Board of Directors.
14. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall conduct an annual evaluation of the Board of Directors and each committee thereof to determine whether each of them is functioning effectively, and submit a report of its findings to the full Board of Directors at the end of such evaluation. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall discuss the annual evaluation with the full Board of Directors following the end of each fiscal year.
15. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall monitor compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct adopted in accordance with the Sarbanes-

Oxley Act of 2002, as amended, and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder from time to time, including reviewing with the Chief Compliance Officer of the Company the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's procedures to ensure proper compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also recommend to the Board of Directors amendments to the Company's Code of Conduct as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee deems appropriate.

IV. Meetings

Subject to the Company's organizational documents and resolutions of the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall meet from time to time at the direction of its Chairman, provided that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall not meet less frequently than annually, and is empowered to hold special meetings as circumstances require. The Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee or any two members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may fix the time and place of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's meetings unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise provide. Members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment if all persons participating can hear each other at the same time. Subject to the provisions of the 1940 Act, participation in a meeting by these means constitutes presence in person at the meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also be taken without a meeting if all members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee consent thereto in writing. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and records of decisions taken without a meeting and cause them to be recorded in the Company's minute book. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may invite any member of the Board of Directors who is not a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, management, counsel, representatives of service providers or other persons to attend meetings and provide information as the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in its sole discretion, considers appropriate.

A majority, but not less than two, of the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be present at any meeting of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and the act of a majority present shall be the act of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In the absence or disqualification of any member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he/she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member, so long as such appointee is an Independent Director.
